3. There is a new WeatherBug link on the website which will give members the current weather conditions at the field including temperature, wind speed, wind direction, etc. Thanks to Ernie Falco for researching this.
4. President Frank thanked Irv for his great work in keeping the website up to date.
5. The link to the FAA drone site is on the website and is now live and working to assist members in obtaining, or renewing, their FAA issued UAS registration number, (EC).
6. Members are reminded if they have comments/questions or input to the website send them to this email address: TechSupport@SunValleyFliers.com, and any comments/questions regarding the Slow Roll can be directed to SlowRoll@SunValleyFliers.com, (EC).

Old Business:

1. The emails to all members have gone out requesting them to renew their membership for 2027.
2. President Frank asked members to approach others that appear to be driving too fast on the newly tack sealed road and ask them to observe the 10-mph speed limit. Some members have noted we have a few small spots on the road where the tack seal is a bit thin, and President Frank said there is a bucket of tack seal in the shed that any enterprising volunteers can use to recoat the rough spots.

New Business:

1. Tony Quist wrote an excellent article for the November Slow Roll newsletter about the Jet Rally that the club sponsored on Oct. 22-24, 2026. There were 74 registered pilots (from 9 states, Canada, and Brazil) who flew from sunup to sundown. The event garnered a profit of about $5,000. The early birds that arrived on Wednesday may be cautious about coming early in the future, as there was a brief hailstorm and 50 mph wind early in the day. After it passed, there was continuous flying for the rest of the day. Very nice job, Tony, thanks!
2. Chris Cores was recognized and thanked for his contribution to the SVF Jet Rally; Chris and his entire family provided and setup a spread of food at the field for two nights that was absolutely over the top. All the flyers and workers were very impressed with his efforts and generosity. Thank you, Chris!!
3. The next event at the SVF will be Winter Warbirds to be held January 28-30, 2027, Thursday-Saturday). John Gerhardt will again be the contest director for the event and will need some SVF volunteers to work during the event. President Frank will send the all member e-mail out for signups. John said he already has 27 pre-registered entrants, and the entry fee is $60 and reserved tables are $40. Registration is at www.rcnation.com.
4. Ben Gowell and his crew were ready to serve a hot breakfast at the close of the meeting consisting of sausage, pancakes, and hash browns. Thank you, Ben and gang!
